I looked at him for a while/some time before I answered: was the teacher being ironic/ was the teacher trying to be ironic? I don't know, I don't think he was... Anyway/at any rate, after my first impulse to answer him by some sarcastic sentence/sarcastically, I gave up saying anything. It was raining outside, the sky was grey and there were heavy clouds up there/ and it was covered with dark clouds. I rather/ kind of liked this fine rain and the steps of the passers-by (echoing) on the wet pavement. Then "the teacher" continued / went on with his monologue, his fake confession. I don't really know why I called it this way. Maybe he wasn't lying, poor man, or he wasn't doing so deliberately, or he was only half-lying: that is/namely he was lying to himself/ he was in denial and the truth about his past life was a fake truth.
